Caramel in Detroit

This charming award-winning Lebanese movie opens in Detroit on Friday February 8, 2008. Don't miss this opportunity to enjoy an excellent Arabic movie in a theatre near to you. Supporting this movie is crucial to encourage distribution companies to bring more Arabic movies to Detroit in the future. For more information please click here.

Damascus on npr (National Public Radio)

Syria's ancient capital, Damascus, is booming. Economic reforms, high oil prices, investments from the oil-rich Gulf and Syria's withdrawal from Lebanon have all contributed to the renaissance. To read more please click here.

Syria: Opening Skies

Syria has entered the lists in the race for a larger slice of the Middle East's burgeoning civil aviation market, with the state finally licensing private airlines to challenge the monopoly of SyrianAir. To read more please click here.

Story of Two Cities: Damascus and Granada

Mrs. Asma al-Assad and Spanish Queen Sofia yesterday attended a concert in the framework of Damascus, as the Arab Cultural Capital for the year 2008, at al-Hamra Palace in Granada, Spain. An event that has brought together the two cities Damascus and Granada which share the same aroma of Jasmine and history. To read more please click here.
